

PHOTO: VIKTOR GÅRDSÅTER

Design in Stockholm – Interior Design

Scandinavian design goes deeper than just mere aesthetics. The principles of Scandinavian design extend to a way of living and thinking. Beauty and Function. Quality and Affordability. Simplicity and Innovation. These are the essential components behind every sketch, every print and every piece of furniture in Swedish interior design.

Svenskt Tenn

Svenskt Tenn is a must for any lover of design and interior furnishing. The indisputable protagonists of this special store are the iconic designs of architect and designer Josef Frank. You can also find other pieces from some of the most relevant designers of our time on display. There is nothing tame about this place – vivid colors and patterns are everywhere. svenskttenn.se

Nordiska Galleriet

Nordiska Galleriet is one of Europe's leading stores in furniture and interior design. This carefully curated store exhibits an exclusive assortment of contemporary decor made by some of the most renowned international designers and design houses. nordiskagalleriet.se

Asplund

Purposeful, minimalistic, elegant Scandinavian design. Asplund first started as a furniture art gallery which later evolved into a lifestyle store featuring selected items from both young and established designers. Asplund also has its own catalogue which features their furniture and carpet collection, a contract department, an interior studio and most recently; a kitchen collection. asplund.org

Kasthall

Kasthall translates individual vision into bespoke floor creations. Their rugs and textile coverings are custom-made and are made out of some of the most extraordinary and finest natural materials. Their creations have no limitations, they have decorated the ground, lux yachts, exotic hideaways, boutique hotels and The Swedish Royal Castle. kasthall.com

Grandpa

Grandpa has a little bit of everything, yet everything that is in there has been carefully selected. Grandpa is not one to care about big brands, but rather about quality, sustainability and complementing aesthetics. Here you will find a mixture of clothes, shoes, accessories, jewellery, vintage items and interior design. This is a very trendy and very smart gem of a concept store. grandpastore.se

Woodstockholm

Woodstockholm is a design agency, a furniture manufacturer and a restaurant in central Stockholm. They are passionate about innovative design and their work has been featured in numerous exhibitions in Milan, Tokyo, Helsinki and Stockholm. They are that passionate about design that they even run their own design week once a year. woodstockholm.com

Designorget

Designorget is Scandinavian design at its best and at its most affordable. This store is a favourite for locals and for anyone who passes by it really. Designorget has a meticulously curated range of interior decoration, furniture, lighting and lamps, textiles, gadgets and games. This design haven is considered by many to be the best gift shop there is for any gift-worthy occasion. designorget.se

Carl Malmsten

Carl Malmsten is a Swedish emblem in the world of design. He was a furniture designer, an architect and an educator known for his devotion to traditional Swedish craftsmanship. Malmstenbutiken features Malmsten's classic furniture as well as pieces by other prominent designers. The boutique also creates interiors and bespoke furniture for both private individuals and companies. malmsten.se

Svensk Hemslöjd

Svensk Hemslöjd is an arts and crafts store with a lot of history. This charming place sells unique items made in the sign of tradition, but also with contemporary expressions in mind. There is also a broad assortment of quality materials for those who want to knit or embroider, making it a perfect place for both buyers and makers. svenskhemslojd.com

Skultuna

Skultuna is everlasting design at its finest. The company has been producing fine metal objects of the highest quality for both everyday use and for special occasion for over 400 years. Today, Skultuna is one of the oldest companies in the world and it is still the purveyor to the Royal Court of Sweden. skultuna.com

Norrgavel

Norrgavel furniture can be characterized by words such as simplicity, feeling and intent. Norrgavel furniture is far from being flashy, it is discreet and meant to last long and comfort the body. A chair that really gives support to the body, a drawer handle designed to make it easier for fingers and hands to pull out that drawer. That attention to detail and that kind of thoughtful design is what you will find here. norrgavel.se

Granit

Granit started as a simple idea between two friends who wanted to simplify their lives to have more time to live. Granit and its distinctive palette of neutrals is now expanding throughout Europe and the rest of the Nordics. granit.com

IKEA

A phenomenon that has changed the entire world's view of home furnishing. Kungens Kurva in Skärholmen, south of Stockholm, is the home of the largest Ikea store in Sweden, which opened in 1965. The area is also home to numerous other megastores and shopping centers with affordable shopping. ikea.com

Svenska Armaturer

Sweden might feel dark during the winter months, but Svenska Armaturer is brightly lit all year long. The shop specializes in Swedish glass lamps, especially mouth-blown glass lamps from the Kingdom of Crystal in southern Sweden. Although focusing mainly on beautiful vintage lamps, Svenska Armaturer also uses the original molds to produce new replicas of classic lamp designs. svenskaarmaturer.se

Tambur

Sustainability is the keyword when Tambur chooses its assortment of Swedish design. Everything in the small shop, no bigger than a one-room apartment, is picked with great care to be free from chemicals, locally produced and of the highest quality. And it doesn't hurt if the products are beautiful to look at, as well. tamburstore.se

Växjö Elektriska

Family-owned Växjö Elektriska was founded in 1944, in southern Sweden. In 2017 the company opened a second store on Tegnérgatan in Stockholm. The boutique specializes in lamps, fixtures, and armatures. Besides some of the world's leading manufacturers, you'll find a large assortment of Swedish and Scandinavian brands as well. vaxjoelektriska.se