Stockholm Archipelago, News & Highlights

Just a few minutes away from the city of Stockholm, the archipelago begins. With nearly 30,000 islands, islets and rocks - from Grisslehamn in the north to Landsort in the south - each with its own character. Here is a selection of news and highlights for 2019.

Inter-island ferry line Nord/Sydlinjen

Perfect for island hopping. Get to know some new islands or visit some of the classics. A three-day ticket is recommended. waxholmsbolaget.se

Vaxholm Bed & Breakfast greenhouse & workshops

Vaxholm Bed & Breakfast has opened up a lovely Greenhouse for private dinners and a popular Swedish Fika buffet on Sundays. They also offer workshops on how to make Swedish cinnamon buns, traditional Swedish food and chocolate pralines. vaxholmsbedandbreakfast.se

Gustavsbergs Porslinsmuseum (reopens)

After extensive renovations the Gustavsbergs Porcelain museum is reopening during the summer of 2019 there will be numerous events, new exhibitions and a newly renovated showcase area. nationalmuseum.se/gustavsbergs-porslinsmuseum

Vaxholm Skypark

Vaxholm Skypark is a brand new adventure park that offers a thrilling track among the trees up in the air. Vaxholm Skypark has tracks for both beginners and experienced visitors and they vary from 18-1 meter up. The activities are suitable for everyone from the age of five. ### 300th anniversary of the Russian Pillage

In 2019, it is exactly 300 years since the Russian Pillage of the eastern coast of Sweden took place. It was during the summer of 1719 that the Russian fleet ravaged a major part of the Swedish east coast including the Stockholm Archipelago. The event will be highlighted through activities in the archipelago and different tourist attractions. ryssharrjningarna.se

The edible country campaign on Utö Island

To create an accessible alternative to unhealthy foods and an inactive lifestyle, Visit Sweden turned to four of Sweden's Michelin-starred chefs and together transformed the whole country into a do-it-yourself gourmet restaurant where guests cook their own food in nature. Tables have been placed all over the country, open for bookings, and one is placed on Utö island in the Stockholm Archipelago.
