

This is Stockholm – 619 characters

Stockholm is a city of contrasts. It's unquestionably alluring, and widely regarded as one of the world's most beautiful cities. Stockholm is urban yet historic and very close to nature; water is an ever-present feature in this city where green areas, medieval buildings, and skyscrapers meet. Diversity, equality and innovation are celebrated and embraced here. This is a modern hub for tech, fashion, music, film, design, gaming and all creative industries. This is a city open to everything and to everyone. This is a place for those who want to be inspired, for those who want to create and make an impact.